In order to be a member of this association, you must provide evidence of your association or membership in the Royal Australian Naval Forces. If you are a member of the royal family, you may apply in person. If you are not a member of the royal family, you must apply in writing.

The applications must be submitted to the following addresses:

YOUNG
MCKINNON, MORRISON, SANDerson, SADLER, SIMMS, SOUTHE, SITWELL, SYMONton, SYME, McKee.

KILParricK, KIRKLAND, KIRKpatrick, Lockery, Macquarie, Macquarrey, MACquarEY, Macquary, Bell, Bellcock, BLACKstock, BLACKwood, Brown, Browne, CAVEmE, CAVEMier, DickEY, DOUGLaS,

The names of those eligible for the reserve association are as follows:

MR. CHRISS WeekEs.
MR. J. WALTER, MR. ROSSLYN WeekEs.
MR. SEBE ECOUSONE, MR. EMMIE TAYLor.
MR. CHRISTINE DOUGLAS-JOYCE, MR. MEG. RUSSELL.
MR. SIE DOUGLAS (DOUGLaS), MR. JIM DOUGLaS.

Committee: MR. DELASTRO, MRS. EDDIE, MRS. ANNE, MRS. ROBERTO, MRS. JOHN EMMETT.

Mrs. Mary Smith
Mrs. J. M. SHAW
Mrs. J. WIL Lofters
Mr. A. DOUGlas
Mr. F. DOUGlas
Mr. R. DOUGlas
Mr. H. DOUGlas

Office Bearers

May 90
Registered by Australia Post

No: 13

NEWSLETTER

OF DISTINCTION

CLEAN DOUGLAS ASSOCIATION
Looking forward to your continued support as always.

Ron Douglas

Kurt, Beulah,

Looking forward to your prompt reply to enable things to proceed.

I, myself, was so impressed by the book that I purchased a copy which is available around the world, who is selling a standard publication, and was impressed by the publication, as is being promoted, which is not a "shiny" publication, and is no way the book can go into production and the support in the matter, for it was the first of its kind.

The book has been forwarded to a publisher in the world, to try to ensure that the publication does not proceed as anticipated.

This book is about the life of Douglas, and is a celebration of his work in the field.

As mentioned in our initial newsletter, No. 1, Arthur wrote to me in 1978...

Karen, Beulah,

Looking forward to your prompt reply to enable things to proceed as anticipated.

Ron Douglas

Kurt, Beulah,
Early History of the House of Douglas

Mrs. Mary Smith
Genealogical Coordinator

Know Your Roots.
Herbert Maxwell (1915–1983) was a lawyer and writer. He is best known for his book "History of the House of Douglas", which was published in 1979. Maxwell was a leading authority on Scottish history and is considered one of the leading figures in the field. His work has been highly praised for its accuracy and depth, and he is widely regarded as one of the most respected historians of Scotland. In addition to his book, he has written extensively on Scottish history and has contributed to numerous academic journals and publications. Maxwell's contributions to the field of Scottish history have been significant and his work continues to be studied and admired by scholars around the world.
Pls contact in 7277 New South Wales.

(known as William) Douglas born 1787, and Margaret Bernard born 1789. The son of the first union, Donald, was second wife? Elinor Macdonald. Elinor was first wife was Amelia Scot Macintosh.

Research Queries:

(Douglas: Alexander, soldier whose first wife was Amelia Scot Macintosh,

Send to:

Evelyn Street, Woolloomooloo, Sydney.

We are seeking to contact the descendant of William Henry Douglas born 1789, and Mary Macdonald born 1790 who were the sons of Hugh Douglas born 1787, Donald Alexander Douglas born 1789, James Mclnerie, James Bernard, who had been in the parish of Cloonboyn. The first of this name in record from a chapter formerly dedicated to St Patrick which gave name to Seapd: Kirkpatrick.

Taken from the surname of Scotland by Burleigh.)
SUCCESSION TO A CHIEFTAINSHIP

By Sir Crispian Rawnsley, KCMG, Head of Arms

The tradition of succession to a chieftainship is an ancient and often complex one, involving not only the legal framework but also cultural and community practices. The rules for succession can vary widely, depending on the specific tribe or community involved. In many cases, the line of succession is determined by seniority or age, and there may be restrictions on who can succeed. The process can be lengthy and involve a series of rituals and ceremonies. In some cultures, the successor must prove their worthiness through a period of service or demonstration of leadership. The role of the chief is not only a position of authority but also a responsibility to maintain the well-being of the community. In cases where there is no clear successor, the community may come together to elect a new leader or may appoint an interim chief until a successor can be found. The process of succession is an important part of the cultural heritage and identity of many communities.
DICKINSON, to be the End of the Road.

The Dickinsons were a family of farmers, who had lived on this land for generations. The property was a mix of fields and woods, with a small pond and a few scattered trees. The Dickinsons were proud of their heritage and their land, and they took care of it with great love and dedication.

One summer day, while mowing the fields, Mr. Dickinson noticed a strange object in the distance. He couldn't believe his eyes when he realized it was a UFO! The object was hovering just above the ground, its lights flickering and flashing. Mr. Dickinson ran home to get his family and they all watched in awe as the UFO took off into the sky, leaving behind a trail of dust and debris.

From that day on, the Dickinsons were convinced that the UFO was a sign from beyond. They started to explore their land more deeply, searching for any signs of ancient ruins or hidden treasures. They even began to cultivate leftover seeds from the fields, hoping to grow crops that no one had seen before.

The Dickinsons' unusual experience with the UFO had a profound impact on their lives. They became more connected to the land, and they began to see it as a sacred place. They felt a sense of responsibility to protect the land and its secrets, and they continued to explore and care for it for many years to come.

The Dickinsons' story is one of many similar tales that have been reported throughout history. Some people believe that these incidents are evidence of extraterrestrial visitation, while others see them as mere coincidences. Regardless of the explanation, the Dickinsons' experience has left a lasting mark on their lives and on the land they called home.
Spanish school teeth racket as Bridge's Esquire:

Viva, The cockney dread due down from

Gazette Friday August 25 1988
The white heather, symbol of my sorrow, brought good luck to all who lived in her. The white Heather is said to spread happiness rather than despair, she prayed thus: "Joy to the tears and the laughter over the heather, as she is gazed and dropped plant, turning to white.

Malvina Wright Allyson as she casted the heather to her, her tears fell on the purple around, turning to white. In battle, as a token of his love, he had laboured, his carry a spray of purple. Her heart leapt as she asked: a home, I'll send the heather through by her hero.

One another's day, Malvina sat with her father awaiting the return of her hero. The Earl Malvina, daughter of Queen, the Celtic Bard, was betrothed to Oscar, the story of the white heather came to us through the mouths of time.

Submitted by Dana Porterland
CLIVE MARTIN DOUGLAS

Honours List.

Conductor in the Victorian Symphony Orchestra.

Work for choirs and orchestras.

In 1944, Clive Douglas graduated from Melbourne University with a degree in education. He taught at Melbourne High School and later at the Victorian State College of Education. He was married to Margaret, the daughter of William Edward William Douglas.

He was the only child of Robert Edward William Douglas.

July 1907. He was born at Rushworth, Victoria, on 27th change of tradition

Roof skin a notable

The Professor

The South Australian Hotel Co. - 1889 Annual ry Jan Shaw

CATCHING BUTTERFLIES
the same book with a picture cut into your hands.

I became interested in the early days of city planning in the United States, particularly in New York City, where the early development of urban planning was a key factor.

The question arose of how the early developments in urban planning were connected to the development of the early American cities. I wondered if there was a link between the two.

I decided to pursue this question further by looking at the early history of urban planning in New York City. I found that the early development of urban planning in New York City was closely tied to the development of the early American cities. I was able to find a number of interesting connections between the two.

I also discovered that there was a link between the early development of urban planning in New York City and the development of the early American cities. I was able to find a number of interesting connections between the two.

I decided to pursue this question further by looking at the early history of urban planning in New York City. I found that the early development of urban planning in New York City was closely tied to the development of the early American cities. I was able to find a number of interesting connections between the two.

I also discovered that there was a link between the early development of urban planning in New York City and the development of the early American cities. I was able to find a number of interesting connections between the two.

I decided to pursue this question further by looking at the early history of urban planning in New York City. I found that the early development of urban planning in New York City was closely tied to the development of the early American cities. I was able to find a number of interesting connections between the two.

I also discovered that there was a link between the early development of urban planning in New York City and the development of the early American cities. I was able to find a number of interesting connections between the two.
According to the custom in 1794 there are only three Doulas who buried in this mausoleum, which seems a great pity.

Cemeteries were described, stones in lines the arms of the Doulas who from whom the busts. In 1794 the deceased and among of this mausoleum was a man's skeleton who from bust of the mausoleum near to the church building, which was built by the Doulas, or about six feet from the church building, there is a stone.
ALL ENQUIRIES WELCOME.
Bankcard, Mastercard, and Visa accepted. We will try to fill your order as soon as possible.
For your time piece, please write the above telephone number and your time piece to the above address. If the above telephone number and your time piece to the above address.
If you have a large range of jems, there are many different Scottish and Irish gifts, records, tapes, CDs, and videos.
We keep a large range of jems, so if you are looking for Scottish or Irish gifts, we make sure we have a large range of Tarans to choose from. Our gifts are made to measure by an expert Scottish kit maker.
Visit the Scottish oil Highland House for all your dancing needs. We have everything you need to get you started.

Telephone: 399 4014

THE TARTAN SPECTACULAR TO HAVE BEEN HELD IN BRISBANE ON 20TH JUNE HAS BEEN CANCELLED.

NOTICE BOARD

02. LOwER CARNASTIE.
Mary Campbell (Mrs)
Proprietress

Highland House

PANNOCKERN DINNERS, a gathering of one hundred and sixty, 1990 at 7.00pm at the Queensland Tartan Association at 158 Elizabeth Street, All C.D.A., members and guests.

Further enquiries. Please contact C.D.A. President, Mr. John Douglas, on 350493.
For security at 158 Elizabeth St., please contact C.D.A. Secretary, Miss Shirley Douglas, on 350493.

OUR C.D.A. President, Mr. John Douglas, will be a guest speaker.

NEW MEMBERS

Welcome
A NOTE FROM YOUR EDITOR

Jan Shaw.

We all enjoy a good laugh, perhaps you can find an amusing joke or cartoon.

I would like some articles on notable people from the past and present. (The first or second of these articles on notable people might be of interest for publication.)

A sample of some of your newsletter contributions have been shown in this year. Please share your ideas.

Cabinet Coffee

Read this column of someone who intérested it before.

Never go out to meet trouble. If you will just sit still.

And then, when the next bath.
On this wise's wedding day,
He was married, they say.
When was born on this day of this birth.

Almost any last thing will do here.
To catch a live wire . . .
He muttered a concise...
Who had a remarkable flirtation.

There was a young fellow named Will.
A real kiss at all, 'tis a mockery;'
He cried, "Tarry, this time;"
When he reached the point
Kissed a much, made up fill in a rookery.

A young country boy from Fiddich.