

The Scottish Ancestry of Princess Max

On January 24, 1967, His Royal Highness The Prince Max, younger son of His Majesty King Albert, married Countess Elisabeth Douglas.

Princess Max was born into a branch of the Scottish house of Douglas which had settled in Sweden in the seventeenth century. She is descended in the male line from William Douglas, 4th of Whittinghame, who married Elizabeth Maitland, herself a descendant of Robert II, King of Scots.

Wedding of Prince and Princess Max, January 24, 1967.
The wedding attendants are the groom's nephews and nieces:
Alexander Quadt, Walburga Waldburg, Gina Quadt, Erich Waldburg,
Gabrielle Waldburg, Marianne Quadt, and Monika Waldburg.

Robert II, King of Scots (born 1316; crowned 1371; died 1390)	James Douglas of Lothian (died before 1323)
Robert Stewart, 1st Duke of Albany (1339-1420) Lothian	Sir John Douglas of (died 1350)
Margaret Stewart Dalkeith married	Sir James Douglas of (b c1330-1420)
Robert Stewart, 1st Lord Lorn (died before 1449)
Isabel Stewart married	Sir James Douglas, 1st Lord Dalkieth (died 1441)
Colin Campbell, 1st Earl of Argyll (died 1493)

Margaret Campbell married George Seton, 2nd Lord Seton (died 1507/8)	Sir William Douglas, 1st of Whittinghame (died before 1484)
Martha) Seton married William Maitland of Thirlestane and Lethington (died 1513)	Sir William Douglas, 2nd of Whittinghame (alive 1484)
Sir Richard Maitland of Thirlestane and Lethington (1496-1586)	William Douglas, 3rd of Whittinghame (died about 1572)
Elizabeth Maitland	William Douglas, 4th of Whittinghame (alive 1590)
-----	-----
Patrick Douglas (died 1626)
Count Robert Douglas (1611-1682)
Count Gustaf Douglas (1648-1705)
Count Vilhelm Douglas (1683-1763)
Count Vilhelm Otto Douglas (1721-1776)
Count Carl Vilhelm Douglas (1754-1834)
Count Vilhelm Christoffer Robert Douglas (1784-1844)
Count Carl Israel Vilhelm Douglas (1824-1898)
Count Ludvig Vilhelm August Douglas (1849-1917)
Count Archibald Douglas (1883-1960)
Count Carl Douglas (1908-1961)
Countess Elisabeth Douglas (born 1940) married (1967)
Max, Prince of England, Scotland, France, and Ireland Prince of Bavaria, Duke in Bavaria (born 1937)	